The 3 Fears

Reflecting from the waaz mubarak of al-Dai al-Ajal Syedna Aali Qadr Mufaddal Saifuddin (TUS)

The human face houses all five senses

Syedna Al-Dai al-Ajal TUS delivered the recital of Haarith e Hamdaan, the obedient follower of Amirul Mumineen SA. He demonstrated the three fears of (i) never opposing his Maula, (ii) staying away from those who didn't fear Allah TA, (iii) and being wary of his tongue. He continued to demonstrate his love for Maulana Ali SA by never refraining from his zikr and remaining oblivious of those who did not fear Allah TA. As a result, he was thrown into a fire, which had the power to overwhelm the senses.

The sight and sound of fire itself instills fear in hearts and minds. Furthermore, its smoke enters the lungs through the nose and mouth causing permanent damage. When in contact with the skin, it burns it completely. But Haarith's undying obedience, led to the fire being split into two; and he walked through it unscathed to finally unite with his Maula. Maulana Ali SA addressed him with his renowned words "O Haar-e-Hamdaan!".
